THOMAS R. TIZZIO
SENIOR VICE CHAIRMAN

June 3, 1998

To Our Insureds:

I am writing to call your attention to a situation that has the potential to cause unprecedented dislocation to businesses in the United States and throughout the world. As many of you know, thousands, perhaps millions, of computers and devices with embedded microchips record only the last two digits of a year. As a result, they may not be able to recognize that January 1, 2000 (or subsequent dates) comes after December 31, 1999. As soon as dates in the Year 2000 become relevant to the operation of products or business transactions - a process that has already begun - computers and microchips containing the "millennium bug" may produce erroneous calculations or cease to function, causing problems that can range from the merely inconvenient to the potentially disastrous. Inventory and accounting systems will be affected; so will credit-card validation, electronic data interchange, automated banking reports, pension benefit payments, drug distribution systems for pharmacies and hospitals, and mechanical systems operating everything from office building environmental controls and elevator banks to telephone switches and oil refineries. The cost of fixing the problem in the United States alone has been estimated at more than $600 billion.

Whether the dislocation resulting from this "bug" will be crippling or merely extraordinarily expensive, we at AIG believe that any business that uses or is affected by computers - in other words, every business in the country - must respond immediately, proactively, and aggressively. Most Year 2000 problems can be averted, given sufficient foresight, resources, and will. Companies will be judged - and, in some cases, will succeed or fail - depending on how they address these issues.

At AIG, we have identified those of our systems that are subject to Year 2000 risk, and we are well on the way to ensuring that all of our systems will be Year 2000-compliant in time to prevent any significant disruption or dislocation in our business or in the services we provide to our insureds. We are also communicating with the third-party brokers, agents, and administrators with whom we deal to alert them to these issues and encourage them to take similar actions. Every process to address Year 2000 should include backup and contingency plans to ensure that any incidents that do occur have minimal impact on operations.

The principal purpose of this letter is to encourage you, in the strongest possible terms, to do what is necessary to ensure that you have the same degree of comfort about the operation of your business in the face of potential Year 2000 problems as we have about ours. The Year 2000 bug is, first and foremost, a business and technical problem that must be addressed on that basis. It cannot be too strongly emphasized that a company's most important response to the Year 2000 problem is to take all feasible steps to eliminate the problem on a technical basis--or, to the extent the problem cannot be eliminated, to minimize its impact. Resources must be assembled and managed; the board of directors should take an active and ongoing role in ensuring that management has identified, addressed, and resolved problems on a timely basis.

Y2KLetter
Y00001

What, then, should your organization do? There is obviously no single general solution to a problem that will have as many different manifestations as there are addressees of this letter, but a few common sense guideposts may be helpful:

- If you have not yet evaluated your Year 2000 exposure, do it now. Assemble whatever resources are needed to get a handle on the scope of the problem at your organization now, so that remedial efforts can be started without further delay. Most public companies will already have started this process in response to SEC disclosure requirements, but everyone should take a good, hard look at their compliance efforts to ensure that nothing has been overlooked.
- Set priorities. What is critical and what merely important? What can be fixed and what should be junked?
- Be practical. Many "Year 2000 questionnaires" seem designed as much to transfer potential blame as to solve the problem. If there is a truly crucial third party -- your payroll services vendor, for example, or the sole supplier of an indispensable raw material -- don't just send a questionnaire. Instead, give serious consideration to direct testing and evaluation of the vendor or supplier's systems. If there is a crippling Year 2000 problem, a later breach of warranty claim against the supplier's trustee in bankruptcy will not provide you a great deal of comfort.
- Test, test, and then test some more. Expect and plan for the unexpected.

As I said at the outset of this letter, the potential for dislocation from Year 2000 problems is unprecedented. But so is the level of knowledge concerning the problem and the technical ability to solve it. I urge all of our insureds to address their Year 2000 issues promptly and aggressively.

Commercial Umbrella Policy Form

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy, the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured as defined in Insuring Agreement IV, Definitions. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the Company providing this insurance. The word "Insured" means any person or organization qualifying as such in Insuring Agreement IV, Definitions.

In consideration of the payment of the premium and in reliance upon the statements in the Declarations we agree with you to provide coverage as follows:

Insuring Agreements

I. Coverage

We will pay on behalf of the Insured those sums in excess of the Retained Limit that the Insured becomes legally obligated to pay by reason of liability imposed by law or assumed by the Insured under an Insured Contract because of Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury that takes place during the Policy Period and is caused by an Occurrence happening anywhere in the world. The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Insuring Agreement III, Limits of Insurance.

If we are prevented by law or statute from paying on behalf of the Insured, then we will, where permitted by law or statute, indemnify the Insured for those sums in excess of the Retained Limit.

II. Defense

A. We shall have the right and duty to defend any claim or suit seeking damages covered by the terms and conditions of this policy when:

1. The applicable Limits of Insurance of the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance and the Limits of Insurance of any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured have been exhausted by payment of claims to which this policy applies; or
2. Damages are sought for Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury covered by this policy but not covered by any underlying insurance listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured.

B. When we assume the defense of any claim or suit:

1. We will defend any suit against the Insured seeking damages on account of Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury even if such suit is groundless, false or fraudulent, but we have the right to investigate, defend and settle the claim as we deem expedient.
2. We will pay the following, to the extent that they are not included in the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or in any other insurance providing coverage to the Insured:
 - a. premiums on bonds to release attachments for amounts not exceeding our Limits of Insurance, but we are not obligated to apply for or furnish any such bond;
 - b. premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or suit we defend, but we are not obligated to apply for or furnish any such bond;
 - c. all costs taxed against the Insured in any claim or suit we defend;

- d. pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured on that part of the judgment we pay. If we make an offer to pay the applicable Limit of Insurance, we will not pay any pre-judgment interest based on that period of time after the offer;
- e. all interest that accrues after entry of judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within our applicable Limit of Insurance;
- f. the Insured's expenses incurred at our request.

We will not defend any suit or claim after our applicable Limits of Insurance have been exhausted by payment of judgments or settlements.

All expenses we incur in the defense of any suit or claim are in addition to our Limits of Insurance.

- C. In all other instances except A. above, we will not be obligated to assume charge of the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim made, suit brought or proceeding instituted against the Insured. We will, however, have the right and shall be given the opportunity to participate in the defense and trial of any claims, suits or proceedings relative to any Occurrence which, in our opinion, may create liability on our part under the terms of this policy. If we exercise such right, we will do so at our own expense.

III. Limits of Insurance

- A. The Limits of Insurance shown in Item 3 of the Declarations and the rules below state the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
 - 1. Insureds;
 - 2. Claims made or suits brought; or
 - 3. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing suits.
- B. The General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for all damages covered under Insuring Agreement I except:
 - 1. Damages included in the Products-Completed Operations Hazard; and
 - 2. Coverages included in the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance to which no underlying aggregate limit applies.
- C. The Products-Completed Operations Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for all damages included in the Products-Completed Operations Hazard.
- D. Subject to B. and C. above, whichever applies, the Each Occurrence Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of damages covered under Insuring Agreement I because of all Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury and Advertising Injury arising out of any one Occurrence.

If the applicable limits of insurance of the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or of other insurance providing coverage to the Insured are reduced or exhausted by payment of one or more claims that would be insured by our policy we will:

- 1. In the event of reduction, pay in excess of the reduced underlying limits of insurance; or
- 2. In the event of exhaustion of the underlying limits of insurance, continue in force as underlying insurance.

The Limits of Insurance of this policy apply separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than 12 months, starting with the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than 12 months. In that case, the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for purposes of determining the Limits of Insurance.

E. Retained Limit

We will be liable only for that portion of damages in excess of the Insured's Retained Limit which is defined as the greater of either:

1. The total of the applicable limits of the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance and the applicable limits of any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured; or
2. The amount stated in the Declarations as Self Insured Retention as a result of any one Occurrence not covered by the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance nor by any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured; and then up to an amount not exceeding the Each Occurrence Limit as stated in the Declarations.

F. Duties In The Event Of An Occurrence, Claim Or Suit

1. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an Occurrence which may result in a claim under this policy. To the extent possible, notice should include:
 - a. how, when and where the Occurrence took place;
 - b. the names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and
 - c. the nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the Occurrence.
2. If a claim is made or suit is brought against any Insured that is reasonably likely to involve this policy you must notify us in writing as soon as practicable.
3. You and any other involved Insured must:
 - a. immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or suit;
 - b. authorize us to obtain records and other information;
 - c. cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the claim or suit; and
 - d. assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the Insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may also apply.
4. No Insureds will, except at their own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for first aid, without our consent.

G. Inspection

We have the right, but are not obligated, to inspect your premises and operations at any time. Our inspections are not safety inspections. They relate only to the insurability of your premises and operations and the premiums to be charged. We may give you reports on the conditions we find. We may also recommend changes. While they may help reduce losses, we do not undertake to perform the duty of any person or organization to provide for the health or safety of your employees or the public. We do not warrant that your premises or operations are safe or healthful or that they comply with laws, regulations, codes or standards.

H. Legal Actions Against Us

There will be no right of action against us under this insurance unless:

1. You have complied with all the terms of this policy; and
2. The amount you owe has been determined with our consent or by actual trial and final judgment.

This insurance does not give anyone the right to add us as a defendant in an action against you to determine your liability.

I. Maintenance of Underlying Insurance

During the period of this policy, you agree:

1. To keep the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance in full force and effect;

2. That any renewals or replacements of the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance will not be more restrictive in coverage;
3. That the limits of insurance of the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance shall not change except for any reduction or exhaustion of aggregate limits by payment of claims for Occurrences covered by this policy; and
4. That the terms, conditions and endorsements of the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance will not materially change during the period of this policy.

If you fail to comply with these requirements, we will only be liable to the same extent that we would had you fully complied with these requirements.

J. Other Insurance

If other valid and collectible insurance applies to a loss that is also covered by this policy, this policy will apply excess of the other insurance. However, this provision will not apply if the other insurance is specifically written to be excess of this policy.

K. Premium

The first Named Insured designated in Item 1 of the Declarations shall be responsible for payment of all premiums when due.

The premium for this policy shall be computed on the basis set forth in Item 4 of the Declarations. At the beginning of the policy period, you must pay us the Advance Premium shown in Item 4 of the Declarations.

When this policy expires or if it is cancelled, we will compute the earned premium for the time this policy was in force. If this policy is subject to audit adjustment, the actual exposure basis will be used to compute the earned premium. If the earned premium is greater than the Advance Premium, you will promptly pay us the difference. If the earned premium is less than the Advance Premium, we will return the difference to you. But in any event we shall retain the Minimum Premium as shown in Item 4 of the Declarations for each twelve months of our policy period.

L. Prior Insurance

If a loss covered by this policy is also covered in whole or in part under any other excess policy issued to the Insured prior to the effective date of this policy, our Limits of Insurance as stated in Item 3 of the Declarations will be reduced by any amounts due the Insured under such prior insurance.

M. Separation of Insureds

Except with respect to our Limits of Insurance and any rights or duties specifically assigned to the first Named Insured designated in Item 1 of the Declarations, this insurance applies:

1. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and
2. Separately to each Insured against whom claim is made or Suit brought.

N. Subrogation

If any Insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this policy, those rights are transferred to us. The Insured must do nothing after loss to impair these rights and must help us enforce them.

Any recoveries shall be applied as follows:

1. Any interests, including the Insured, that have paid an amount in excess of our payment under this policy will be reimbursed first;

2. We then will be reimbursed up to the amount we have paid; and
3. Lastly, any interests, including the Insured, over which our insurance is excess, are entitled to claim the residue.

Expenses incurred in the exercise of rights of recovery shall be apportioned between the interests, including the Insured, in the ratio of their respective recoveries as finally settled.

O. Transfer Of Your Rights And Duties

Your rights and duties under this policy may not be transferred without our written consent.

If you die or are legally declared bankrupt, your rights and duties will be transferred to your legal representative but only while acting within the scope of duties as your legal representative. However, notice of cancellation sent to the first Named Insured designated in Item 1 of the Declarations and mailed to the address shown in this policy will be sufficient notice to effect cancellation of this policy.

P. When Loss Is Payable

Coverage under this policy will not apply unless and until the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurer is obligated to pay the Retained Limit.

When the amount of loss has finally been determined, we will promptly pay on behalf of the Insured the amount of loss falling within the terms of this policy.

You shall promptly reimburse us for any amount within the Self Insured Retention paid by us on behalf of an Insured.

In Witness Whereof, we have caused this policy to be executed and attested, but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by one of our duly authorized representatives, where required by law.

ENDORSEMENT #1

THIS ENDORSEMENT, EFFECTIVE 12:01 A.M. 01/01/00 FORMS A PART OF POLICY NO: SE 357-43-84 ISSUED TO: INTEGRATED HEALTH SERVICES, INC.
BY NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH, PA

RETAINED LIMIT AMENDMENT ENDORSEMENT

1. In Section III, Limits of Insurance, Paragraph E, Retained Limit, is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

E. Retained Limit

We will be liable only for that portion of damages in excess of the Limits stated in the Schedule of Retained Limits attached to this policy and then up to an amount not exceeding the Each Occurrence Limits as stated in the Declarations. The Retained Limits shown in the attached Schedule shall apply whether or not the Insured maintains applicable underlying insurance.

Coverage is limited to apply only in excess of the Retained Limits shown in the attached Schedule and only for those coverages for which a Retained Limit is shown; these Retained Limits shall not include "Defense Expenses".

2. Section II, Defense, is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

II. Defense

- A. We shall have the right and duty to defend any claim or suit seeking damages covered by the terms and conditions of this policy when the applicable Limits shown in the Schedule of Retained Limits have been exhausted by payment of claims to which this policy applies.

B. When we assume the defense of any claim or suit:

1. We will defend any suit against the Insured seeking damages on account of Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury even if such suit is groundless, false or fraudulent, but we have the right to investigate, defend and settle the claim as we deem expedient.
2. We will pay the following:
 - a. premiums on bonds to release attachments for amounts not exceeding our Limits of Insurance, but we are not obligated to apply or furnish any such bond;
 - b. premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or suit we defend, but we are not obligated to apply for or furnish such bond;
 - c. all costs taxed against the Insured in any claim or suit we defend;
 - d. pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured on that part of the judgment we pay. If we make an offer to pay the applicable Limit of Insurance, we will not pay any pre-judgment interest based on that period of time after the offer;
 - e. all interest that accrues after entry of judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within our applicable Limit of Insurance;

f. the Insured's expenses incurred at our request.

We will not defend any suit or claim after our applicable Limits of Insurance have been exhausted by payment of judgments or settlements.

All expenses we incur in the defense of a suit or claim are in addition to our Limits of Insurance.

- C. In all other instances except A. above, we will not be obligated to assume charge of the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim made, suit brought or proceeding instituted against the Insured. We will, however, have the right and shall be given the opportunity to participate in the defense and trial of any claims, suits or proceedings relative to any Occurrence which, in our opinion, may create liability on our part under the terms of this policy. If we exercise such right, we will do so at our own expense.

3. Additional Definition

~~"Defense Expenses" means a payment allocated to a specific loss, claim or suit for its investigation, settlement or defense, including, but not limited to:~~

- a. attorneys' fees and all other investigation, loss adjustment and litigation expenses;
- b. premiums on bonds to release attachments;
- c. premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or suit;
- d. costs taxed against the Insured in any claim or suit;
- e. pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured;
- f. interest that accrues after entry of judgment.

4. In addition to our duties in the event of an Occurrence, claim or suit, as set forth in the conditions section of the policy, you must:

- a. Notify us in writing as soon as practicable, but not later than sixty (60) days after you receive notice of any Occurrence, claim or suit involving:

 2. dismemberment or amputation
 3. paraplegia or quadriplegia;
 4. loss or impairment of eyesight or hearing;
 5. a sexual assault or battery, including, but not limited to, rape, molestation or sexual abuse; or
 6. which in your reasonable judgment, taking into account past or anticipated "defense expenses" in connection with such Occurrence, claim or suit may result in payments equal to or exceeding 25% of the Retained Limit.

With respect to any claim or suit, you must notify us of any settlement demands by a claimant which exceeds 50% of your Retained Limit and any settlement offers in any amount made by you or on your behalf.

- b. With respect to any claim or suit as set forth in paragraph (a) above, you must forward us, as soon as practicable:
 1. all reports prepared by your loss adjustment representative;

 - a. If no other insurance the Insured purchases to replace this policy applies to the Claim or would apply but for the exhaustion of its applicable limits of liability, an Extended Reporting Period of 60 days from the end of the policy period will apply. This Extended Reporting Period may not be cancelled and requires no additional premium.
 - b. If the Insured makes a written request for an Extended Reporting Period within 30 days after the expiration of the policy period and pays additional premium within 30 days after said request, we will issue an Extended Reporting Endorsement for a period of twelve (12) months from the end of the policy period.

The Extended Reporting Period Endorsement will not take effect unless the additional premium is paid when due. If that premium is paid when due, the endorsement may not be cancelled.

The Extended Reporting Period Endorsement will also amend the Other Insurance condition so that the insurance provided will be excess over any other valid and collectible insurance available to the insured whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis, whose policy period begins or continues after the endorsement takes effect.
5. The premium for the Extended Reporting Period Endorsement (Section 4b above) will not exceed 200% of the annual premium for this policy and will be fully earned when the endorsement takes effect.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED.
